

Does the decomposition in Principal/Independent Components accurately reproduce the original signals? Passed the test.

